

Michelle Obama Honors Louisiana Children’s Museum and PLTI NOLA Parent Leader at the White House

PLTI NOLA 2015 graduate Kanitra Charles and Julia Bland of the Louisiana Children’s Museum met First Lady Michelle Obama at a ceremony honoring exceptional libraries and museums. The LCM received a 2015 National Medal for Museum and Library Sciences — one of only ten museums and libraries in the nation to do so.

Both Charles and Bland were in the White House’s East Room, where Ms. Michelle Obama told Kanitra to send a message back home to her four kids — “Listen to your mom.”
